

Kid's Sermon Notes

Title: Parable of Three Servants and a _____

The Master and His Servants

- Master assigns wealth to his servants according to _____
- _____ of the first two servants and their master
 - o _____ he would return
 - o Knew he had _____
 - o Master demonstrated his _____
- Attitude of _____ servant and his master
 - o Reveals much about _____ in his words about the master
 - Accuses him of being _____, unfair, fearsome
 - o Master does not _____ himself
 - o _____ taken and given to one with greater dynamism

Context

- Matthew 24:36-51: _____ and the danger of unpreparedness
- Matthew 25:1-13: Parable of the _____
- Matthew 25:14-30: Parable of three _____ and a master
- Matthew 25:31-46: A picture of the master's _____

What This Parable Means for Me

- The Master and me
 - o How _____ am I about God?
 - Do I _____ he will return?
 - o What is God's _____ of me?
 - Dangerous exercise to assign our own _____
 - God considers all His _____ workers as important
- The _____ I am given
 - o Must not take _____ approach to finding God's work for me
 - o _____ of the work of God's servants: Matthew 25:37-40
- Working in view of _____
 - o God has great expectations for those who have proven _____

Challenge for Older Learners: This week, find (at least) one good work you can do in the service of God. This might be writing a note of encouragement, sweeping and older neighbor's porch, helping a teacher clean his/her classroom, etc. Afterward, talk with your parents about what you learned about being a servant to others.