

Kid's Sermon Notes

Title: The God of _____

The God of Pity

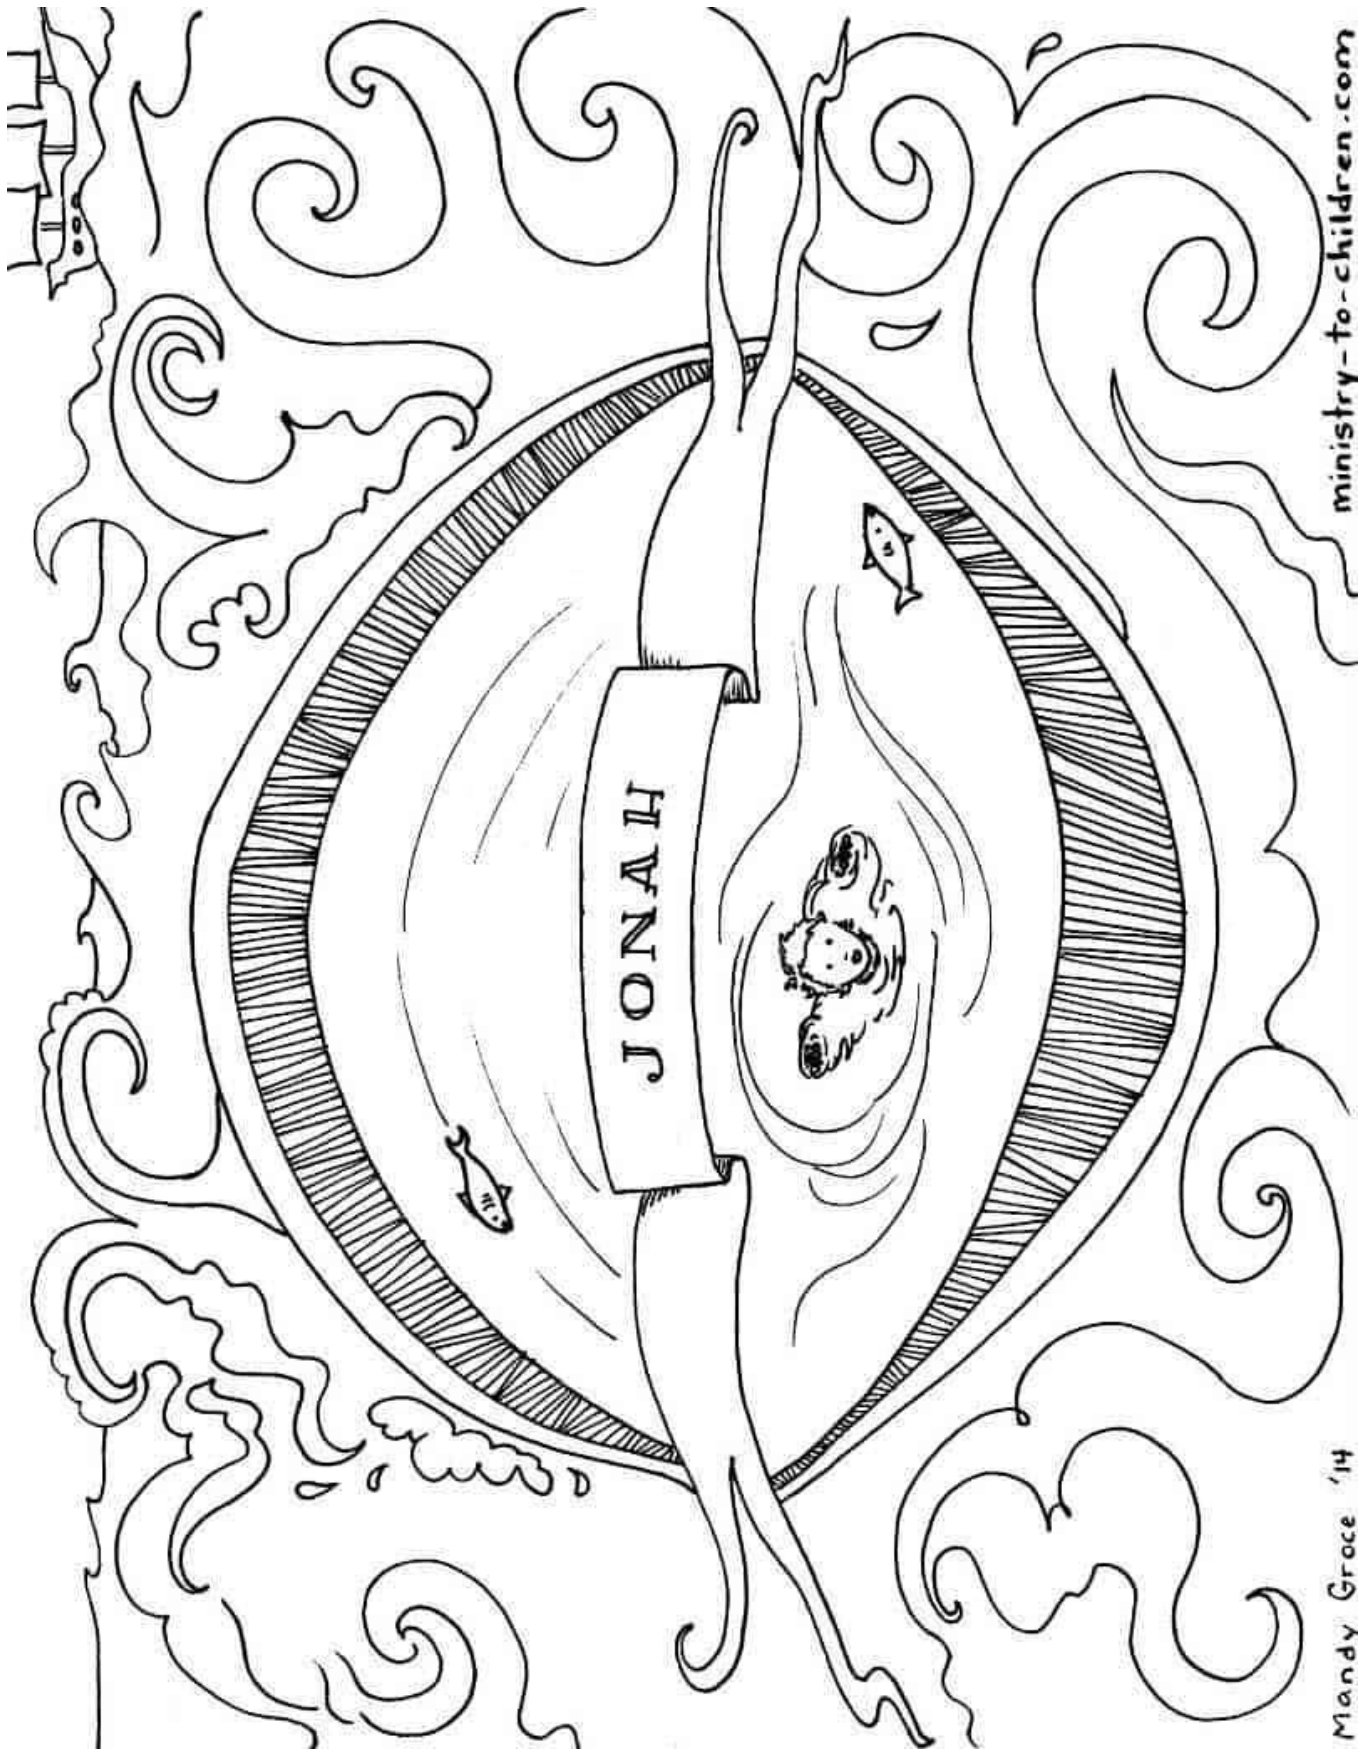

- Ending question: "Should I not pity _____?"
 - o Question cried out for _____ self-reflection
 - There were to be a Kingdom of _____
 - Just as Jonah has chosen _____, so had the Jews
 - They came to the false conclusion they were _____ than others
- The account of Jonah cries out for _____ self-reflection
 - o Nationalism can cause us to lose sight of our _____
 - o Danger in looking at the "_____ " as unworthy of God's attention
- How do handle a God who loves our _____?
 - o _____ fulfilled the duty where Israel failed
 - o We must fulfil this duty as we become more like the _____
 - o Natural result of loving our enemies is _____
 - Greatest act of kindness: Delivering the message of _____

The God of Pity When We Rebel

- How do we handle commands we find _____?
 - o _____ distorts our view of God
- God's _____ to Jonah:
 - o _____ Jonah from himself
 - o Addresses Jonah in _____ terms after getting his attention
 - o Demonstrates to him the _____ of his thinking
- God _____ us in our rebellion
 - o Do we _____ God's attempts to correct our attitudes?
 - o God's pity will not last _____

Seize Salvation from the God of Pity

- The sailors and Ninevites did not _____
 - o They saw _____ as the difference between death and life
 - There is _____ when salvation is not viewed in this manner
 - o Accepting _____ means allowing God to be enthroned

Challenge for Older Learners:

Take your copy of the book of Jonah and underline every word that is spoken by God. After doing so, write a short paragraph explaining what we learn about God from the book of Jonah. If you have done the activities each week, you now have a good study resource for the book of Jonah!

